One of the features of the session of the court were the many little colloquies, for the most part pleasant, between Justice Fuler and Captain Wise. At one lime, however the Yew York lawyer was reminded in a rather positive maner that he was not proceeding according to the notion of the court. Captain Wise was making an assault upon the political characteristics. How John Goode, president of the recent convention, having characcha cie of Hon. Captain Wise bitterly assaulted the Constitution and the entire government machinery of the State, and his speech was in striking contrast with the was in striking contast with the cro-found legal argument of r. Christian, who contended that the court had no jurisdiction in either case, on several grounds which he sought to sustain by a long line of decisions and authorities.

ST. LOUIS November 3. Charles F. Kelley, the former speaker of the St. Louis House of Delegeates left St. Louis several months ago, soon after the grand jury had returned indictments charging him on several counts with bribery in connection with municipal legislation for street railway and other franchises. Fis bonds were fixed at $30,000.

Kelley, it is charged, is the man who distributed the $47,500 boodle of fund among members of the House combine three years ago for the passage of the city lighting bill. Until to-day his whereabouts were unknown to the authorities. A reward of $300 offered by the State for Kelley's arrest still stands. After to-day it will be too late for Kelley to give any tes-timony before the g and Jury on the city lighting deal. The Board of Police Commissioners had been consulted, and Messrs. Manning, Jacob, McCarthy and Chief Howard were present to have something to say of the proposed legislation.

Mr. Jacob acted as spokesman for the commissioners, and stated that every member of the board together with Mafor Howard, were extremely anxious that such legislation as suggested by Mr. Minor should be enacted. He said by compelling the salous to close at a certain hour and allow no bars to obstruct a view to the interior by screens or blinds, the police would be better able to cope with the whiskey traffic, and that much of the Sunday violation would cease.
